

Securities Trading Policy

1. Background

- 1.1 The principal insider trading prohibition is section 1043A of the Corporations Act. Subject to limited exceptions, it prohibits a person (insider) who has Inside Information relating to Company Securities or the quoted Securities of another entity from:
- (a) dealing in relevant Securities;
  - (b) procuring another person to do so; or
  - (c) communicating, directly or not, Inside Information to someone else when the insider knows, or ought reasonably to know, that the other person would or is likely to:
    - (i) Deal in relevant Securities; or
    - (ii) procure another person to do so.
- 1.2 It does not matter how the insider received the information.
- 1.3 Insider trading is a criminal offence, punishable by substantial fines, imprisonment or both. The Company may also be liable if a Designated Officer or Employee engages in insider trading.
- 1.4 Insider trading may also attract civil penalties. A court may impose substantial pecuniary penalties, and order compensation paid to persons suffering related loss or damage.

2. Interpretation

Capitalised words and phrases are defined terms. For definitions, see clause 17.

3. Introduction

- 3.1 The Securities of the Company will be or are quoted on ASX.
- 3.2 This policy outlines:
- (a) when Designated Officers, Employees and Associates must not Deal in Company Securities;
  - (b) when Designated Officers, Employees and Associates must not Deal in quoted Securities of another entity; and
  - (c) certain limited exceptions.

4. What is Inside Information?

- (a) Inside Information is information that:
  - (i) is not generally available; and
  - (ii) if it were generally available, would, or would be likely to, influence persons who normally invest in securities in deciding whether to acquire or dispose of the relevant securities.
- (b) Information is generally available if it:
  - (i) is readily observable;

- (ii) has been made known in a way that is likely to bring it to the attention of persons who normally invest in the relevant type of securities, and a reasonable time for the information to be circulated has since passed; or
  - (iii) consists of deductions, conclusions or inferences drawn from information that has been made known in that way or is readily observable.
- (c) Inside Information is also called 'material price-sensitive information'. It need not relate only to the Company. It could also be information about a customer, or supplier of the Company, or a party with whom the Company is discussing future opportunities or negotiating a significant transaction.
  - (d) In order to minimise the risk of insider trading, the Company must immediately disclose to the market material price-sensitive information not otherwise excluded from the disclosure, as set out in the Company's continuous disclosure policy.
  - (e) Material price sensitive information is Inside Information even if it does not trigger a disclosure obligation under the continuous disclosure regime.

5. What is Dealing in Securities?

5.1 Dealing in Securities includes:

- (a) applying for, acquiring or disposing of, Securities;
- (b) entering into an agreement to do so; or
- (c) granting, accepting, acquiring, disposing, exercising or discharging an option or other right or obligation to acquire or dispose of Securities.

5.2 Dealing in Company Securities can include, but is not limited to:

- (a) buying or selling Company Securities by way of an on-market or off-market transaction;
- (b) granting, acquiring or disposing of a beneficial interest in Company Securities, such as through a trust that holds Company Securities;
- (c) applying for, acquiring or exercising options or rights over Company Securities;
- (d) acquiring Company Securities (or an interest in them) under any employee share plan operated by the Company;
- (e) accepting, or taking up entitlements under, a dividend reinvestment plan, rights issue, bonus issue, share purchase plan or any other offer of Securities made by the Company;
- (f) accepting an offer under a takeover bid for Company Securities;
- (g) entering into a Derivative; and
- (h) agreeing to do any of the above things.

6. When Employees or their Associates must not Deal

An Employee (who is not a Designated Officer) or their Associate must not, in any circumstances, Deal or procure another person to Deal in Company Securities or quoted Securities of another entity if they have Inside Information in relation to Company Securities or Securities relating to that other entity.

7. When a Designated Officer or their Associates must not Deal

- 7.1 A Designated Officer or his or her Associate must not, in any circumstances, Deal or procure another person to Deal in Company Securities if he or she has Inside Information in relation to Company Securities.
- 7.2 A Designated Officer or his or her Associate must not, in any circumstances, Deal or procure another person to Deal in Securities relating to another entity if they have Inside Information in relation to those Securities.
- 7.3 A Designated Officer or their Associate must not Deal or procure another person to Deal in Company Securities during any of the following Closed Periods:
- (a) each period commencing on 1 July and ending 24 hours after the release to the ASX of the Company's half-yearly results; and
  - (b) each period commencing on 1 January and ending 24 hours after the release to the ASX of the Company's full year results; and
  - (c) the period commencing two weeks prior to the Company's annual general meeting and ending 24 hours after the annual general meeting; and
  - (d) any additional period that the Board may specify from time to time.
- 7.4 The Closed Period trading prohibition does not limit any other obligations of Designated Officers prescribed by this policy.

8. Notification of periods when trading is permissible

The Company Secretary will endeavour to notify each Designated Officer of times when he or she is permitted to buy or sell Company Securities.

9. Exceptions

- 9.1 An Employee (who is not a Designated Officer) or his or her Associate may Deal or procure another person to deal in Company Securities if he or she does not have Inside Information in relation to Company Securities.
- 9.2 A Designated Officer or his or her Associate may Deal or procure another person to Deal in Company Securities outside of the Closed Periods if he or she does not have Inside Information in relation to Company Securities and the Designated Officer has provided notification in accordance with clause 10.
- 9.3 A Designated Officer or his or her Associate may Deal in Company Securities if he or she has obtained Clearance in accordance with clause 10.2.
- 9.4 Clause 7.3 does not apply to Dealing by a Designated Officer or his or her Associate that involves or results directly from any of the following, provided that the Designated Officer has provided notification in accordance with clause 10:
- (a) Dealing in Company Securities under an offer or invitation made by the Company to all or most of its ordinary shareholders – such as an offer or invitation under a rights issue, bonus issue, share purchase plan, dividend reinvestment plan, equal access buy-back or in lieu of a cash dividend (and including, without limitation, decisions relating to whether or not to take up entitlements, and the sale of entitlements required to provide for the take-up of the balance of entitlements, under a renounceable rights issue) – or under an equal reduction of capital undertaken by the Company;
  - (b) undertaking to accept, or accepting, an offer for Company Securities made under a takeover bid or disposing of Company Securities under a court-approved compromise or arrangement under Part 5.1 of the Corporations Act;

- (d) where the Designated Officer or his or her Associate is the trustee of a trust, Dealing in Company Securities by that trust provided that neither the Designated Officer nor any Associate is a beneficiary of the trust and any decision to trade during a prohibited period is taken entirely independently of the Designated Officer or his or her Associate;
- (e) disposal of Company Securities effected by a change in the trustee of a trust;
- (f) accepting an offer to acquire Company Securities, or acquiring Company Securities, under any employee share plan that the Board from time to time determines is a plan to which this clause 9.4 applies;
- (g) the exercise (but not the sale of Company Securities following exercise) of an option or right under an employee share plan, or the conversion of a convertible security, where the final date for exercise or conversion falls during a prohibited period; and the Company has been in an exceptionally long prohibited period or has had a number of consecutive prohibited periods and exercise or conversion could not reasonably have occurred outside a prohibited period;
- (h) the forfeiture, lapse, cancellation or surrender of Company Securities under a employee share plan; or
- (i) an off-market transaction involving the transfer or other disposal of Company Securities between a Designated Officer or Associate and any of the following:

  - (iii) a superannuation fund or other pension or saving scheme in which the relevant Designated Officer or an Associate of that Designated Officer is a beneficiary.

9.5 All Dealing referred to in clauses 9.3 and 9.4 is subject to the overriding inside trading prohibition – that is, a Designated Officer or Associate must not Deal if he or she has Inside Information in relation to Company Securities.

9.6 A Designated Officer may Deal in the quoted Securities relating to another entity if he or she does not have Inside Information in relation to those Securities.

10. Providing notification and obtaining Clearance

10.1 If a Designated Officer proposes to Deal in Company Securities at any time, he or she must, prior to such Dealing, provide written notice of his or her intention to the Clearance Officer. After such Dealing, the Designated Officer must provide the Clearance Officer with a transaction confirmation.

10.2 The Clearance Officer may give a Clearance in exceptional circumstances. Exceptional circumstances may include:

- (a) if a person is required by court order, or enforceable undertaking (eg in a bona fide family settlement) to transfer or sell Company Securities or there is another overriding legal requirement to do so; or
- (b) if a person has a pressing financial commitment that cannot otherwise be satisfied and all reasonable alternatives have been investigated.

- 10.3 A Clearance Officer may delegate his or her authority in writing to an appropriate person in the event of illness or absence, provided that person is not a member of the class for which he or she is the Clearance Officer.
- 10.4 The Clearance Officer has discretion to determine that circumstances other than in clause 10.2 nevertheless warrant Clearance.
- 10.5 Clearance will not be given if there is reason to believe that the proposed Dealing breaches this policy.
- 10.6 A request for Clearance must:
- (a) be in writing and given by hand or email to the Clearance Officer prior to the proposed disposal of Company Securities;
  - (b) set out the number of Company Securities proposed to be disposed of, and whether the proposed transaction will be on-market or off-market; and
  - (c) include:
    - (i) sufficient information to demonstrate exceptional circumstances; and
    - (ii) a declaration that the applicant does not believe they have any Inside Information.
- 10.7 The Clearance Officer must:
- (a) keep a written record of:
    - (i) any information or request received in connection with this policy; and
    - (ii) any Clearance given; and
  - (b) send a copy of that record to the Company Secretary for keeping.
- 10.8 The Company Secretary must keep a file of materials received under clauses 10.1 and 6.
- 10.9 A Clearance:
- (a) must be in writing and may be given by hand or emailed;
  - (b) will only be given if the Clearance Officer is satisfied that the applicant has no Inside Information and the circumstances are exceptional; and
  - (c) lapses immediately if the applicant acquires Inside Information.
- 10.10 A Clearance is not an endorsement. Designated Officers, Employees and Associates remain responsible for their compliance with this policy and the Corporations Act.
- 11. Dealings by an Associate
- 11.1 If a Designated Officer may not Deal in Company Securities, he or she must prevent such Dealing by his or her Associate.
- 11.2 A Designated Officer must:
- (a) inform any Associate of the periods during which the Designated Officer must not Deal in Company Securities;
  - (b) inform any Associate that he or she must not Deal in Company Securities on a speculative basis; and
  - (c) request any Associate to inform the Designated Officer immediately after Dealing in Company Securities.
- 11.3 A Designated Officer does not have to comply with clauses 11.1 and 11.2 to the extent that compliance would breach his or her obligation of confidence to the Group.

12. Communicating Inside Information

- 12.1 A Designated Officer, Employee or Associate must not directly or indirectly communicate Inside Information in relation to Company Securities or quoted Securities relating to another entity, if he or she knows, or ought reasonably to know, that the other person would be likely to:
- (a) Deal in relevant Securities; or
  - (b) procure another person to so Deal.
- 12.2 The provisions of clause 12 do not limit, and are additional to, other duties of confidentiality.

13. Notice of change in director's interest

- 13.1 If a Designated Officer is a director, he or she must ensure that an Appendix 3Y Change of Directors' Interest Notice is completed (including the disclosures required by Part 3 of that document titled: 'Closed Period') and provided to the Company's Company Secretary within two business days after the commencement of any Dealing in Company Securities.
- 13.2 The Company Secretary must provide the Appendix 3Y notice to ASX within five business days after the transaction's commencement.

14. Speculative dealing

A Designated Officer must not Deal in Company Securities on considerations of a short-term nature.

15. Derivatives

- 15.1 The Company may grant securities, options or performance rights to its employees as part of their remuneration entitlements. These grants will usually be subject to the satisfaction of performance hurdles before they vest in the Employee or Designated Officer. The use of Derivatives over unvested Company Securities may allow value to be realised from those Securities even if performance hurdles have not been met. This would break the intended connection between staff performance and shareholder best interests.
- 15.2 Accordingly, Employees and Designated Officers are not permitted to use Derivatives in relation to any unvested Company Securities in a way that would have the effect of providing greater benefit than would otherwise have been realised by the Employee or Designated Officer in respect of the unvested Company Securities.
- 15.3 Employees and Designated Officers may use Derivatives in relation to vested Company Securities, provided any Dealing complies with the balance of this policy.

16. Margin loans

- 16.1 Margin loans to support an investment in Company Securities can compromise compliance with this policy, as the loan's terms may compel the sale of Company Securities during a prohibited period or when the Employee or Designated Officer has relevant Inside Information.
- 16.2 Employees and Designated Officers are prohibited from entering into margin loan arrangements to fund the acquisition of Company Securities or in relation to which Company Securities may be used as security against loan repayment.
